DJ Christine Lang joined the Femmes with Fatal Breaks in 2003. Her dj set is strictly "heavy bass style to dance to", enfolding dubstep, 2step, drum'n'bass and latest global ghetto tech. Already in 2000 the british cult magazine The Face entitles her as a "Berlin central spark", since then she is considered one of first and most relevant female dj's in Germany's bass scene. Since today she is active dj and promoter, in 2011 she organized the very successful !RADICAL RIDDIMS! festival (www.radicalriddims.de).

Her DJ skills and knowledge of music came with her first regular DJ job in Bremen's club Modernes. Then she conquered the capitals club scene, became resident in the ICON club and deejayed in all of Berlin's famous venues. Gigs like one at Cologne's Popkomm (with MC Looney Tunes aka Quio) and touring through Germany and abroad have taken her increasingly rough style to a larger audience including ones in Sweden, Argentina, Paraguay, Portugal, Switzerland, Romania, Los Angeles and Israel.

Christine Lang is also working as a filmmaker, so she produced two music videos for Quio. In 2006 "So Dazed" and in 2008 "Rising Tide". Watch them at www.christinelang.eu
